EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Awake, O Sleeper!

This morning came a little earlier than I would have liked — Daylight Savings Time always does. Sometimes that morning sunlight seems more intrusive than illuminating. You're still half-lost in sleep, and that sun is demanding of you a lot more than you're ready to give.

I've said it, and I'm sure you've said it, too. "Just five more minutes." You hit the "snooze" button on your iPhone once (maybe twice? Show of hands?) and turn away from the window.

So many kings of the Old Testament were steadfast in their sleepy ways, rejecting the light their God tried to share with them. Likewise, John tells us that, though Light — Christ — was sent into the world, the world preferred darkness.

Sometimes it seems, when reading through Scripture, that all throughout salvation history, God has been trying to pull back the curtains, to rouse us from our defiant slumber. And we resist Him. Time and time again, we resist Him.

Light brings a certain responsibility with it. It seems to compel productivity. Furthermore, there's no hiding in the light. Any photographer worth his salt knows how to manipulate it, highlighting the good and casting some merciful shade on the bad.

As we enter into the fourth week of Lent, we're getting so close to the main event. Can we handle the light that will come on Easter morning, bursting into the tomb as the stone is rolled away? Can we keep ourselves from hitting the "snooze" button on our souls, and sit up to face the dawn of a new day? — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

From the Desk of Fr. Peter

The blind man in today's Gospel is a very important figure for all of us to consider. From our birth, we have all been affected by sin and the spiritual blindness that comes with it. But thanks be to God, through our baptism, we know about God and we believe in Jesus as God's Son, our Savior and Redeemer. Baptism has given us the light of faith and understanding. But our blindness is not entirely removed. There are still blind spots that affect us and the people around us. We are not able to discover them or change without God's help. Today is a day that we open ourselves to God's grace: to be touched by Jesus and begin a new life!

In the story, Jesus uses his saliva and earth to make clay. We remember the story of creation in Genesis when God formed man out of the slime of the earth. Jesus smears the slimy clay on the man's eyes and instructs him to wash in the pool—symbolizing baptism. In baptism we were washed clean from our sin and we became born again; that is born again or created anew as a child of God. The darkness of sin has been removed and we walk as children of God by the light-vision of faith. But our journey of faith is not an easy path. At times we are misled or wander astray not entirely certain of the right way to go. We experience doubt, confusion, fear, love, passion and pleasure. Some of what we experience or perceive to be good we discover later on wasn't good; it what we thought it was. When that happens, we turn to God asking for pardon and begin again our journey of faith renewed by God's cleansing mercy. Through this process, we experience an increase in our faith. We are more enlightened with spiritual vision and understanding. We are more firm at applying our faith to daily life.

Remember, Lent is a season of Kairos, that is a special time when the Lord is at work with us helping us to see more clearly the path for a closer life with him. If we are sincere, Jesus will help us avoid things that cause us problems by revealing them to us and showing us His way. May God bless you all during this holy season!
