St. Anthony Can Find Anything — Even You

“Tony, Tony, come around! Something is lost and it must be found.”

Did you learn this one when you were a kid? In my experience there are even a lot of lapsed Catholics — or people who were never Catholic at all — who know that when you lose something, St. Anthony becomes your best friend. Missing keys? Pray to St. Anthony. Can't find your favorite sweater? St. Anthony. Forget where you parked your car in the mall lot? St. Anth— okay, you get the idea. Whatever it is, large or small, important or trivial, Tony has a reputation for finding the lost things.

It's a devotion that can seem a little like superstition — witchcraft, even? — if you don't really understand it. Mumble an incantation to a dead guy and you're guaranteed to find your sunglasses. But as with most traditions that are old, beloved and effective, looking a little closer reveals the truth of the matter.

When we lose something really important, what do we do? We make the whole household stop what they're doing to join the search. Having St. Anthony as a friend means you ask him to stop what he's doing to help, too. And how he helps is by taking the matter exactly where all matters need to go — straight to the feet of Christ.

Here's the real genius of St Anthony: he takes the most mundane, commonplace occurrence — misplacing socks — into an encounter with the divine and truly all things great and small are gifts from God. He grabs our hand and points to the cross. “That's what you're looking for,” he tells us.

In the end, Tony doesn't really find the lost things. He finds the lost people.

From the Desk of Fr. Peter

Peace and grace to you all!

In the June/July 2007 issue of the Catholic Extension Magazine a news item was mentioned that demonstrates part of the Gospel message this weekend: from small things, big things one day come. On June 16, 1907, the Catholic Extension Society dedicated its first railway chapel car, the St. Anthony, to bring Mass and the sacraments to churchless areas on the frontier in America. Two more chapel cars were built later on – the St. Peter and the St. Paul. Many churches sprung up throughout the country after visits by these churches on wheels. One Church was St. Catherine of Sienna in Mill City, Oregon. There was a sizeable Catholic population in the area and many people came from nearby Jordan, who were mostly German Catholics, to see the chapel car and hear the Gospel and have the sacraments. Jordan became the site of the first Trappist Monastery in Oregon and the foundation site of the Sisters of St. Mary of Oregon whose Mother House is now located at Murray Blvd. and the Tualatin Valley Highway in Beaverton. I am friends with two of the Sisters, Sr. Michael and Sr. Krista, and I occasionally get to visit them!

This kind of story from our local area reminds us that first impressions and humble beginnings can frequently grow to greater and lasting realities. As people entrusted with the mission to advance the Gospel, one of the most important things to remember is that first impressions are important! Many Catholics feel uneasy or afraid when it comes to talking about their faith with non-Catholic people. Why is that? We have a lot to be proud of and so much to share with others! A couple of points that are important to remember about faith traditions: living your faith in the day to day relationship with God is a prerequisite for talking about it. An important question you might ask yourself each day is “how is my faith important to me right now?” Of equal importance is to never criticize or put down another person no matter their belief. Also it’s never a matter of who is right or wrong. As Catholics, we believe in giving dignity and respect to every person—it’s a debt we owe by love. Reading Scripture, articles or books about Saints or the Catholic Church can help you feel more comfortable, more knowledgeable and more at ease when faith comes up as a topic for discussion but the most important element of all is the personal relationship of love we have in Jesus! God bless you always!+++ Fr. Peter “Christ has no body now but yours.

No hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes through which he looks compassion on this world.
Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good.
Yours are the hands through which he blesses all the world.
Yours are the hands, yours are the feet, yours are the eyes, you are his body.
Christ has no body now on earth but yours.”

Adoration of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament

We have Adoration every Thursday starting after the 9am Mass and conclude with Benediction at noon. Jesus will bless you, your family and the whole world for this hour of faith you spend with Him in the Blessed Sacrament. If you can’t make it on Thursday’s, stop in and spend time with Jesus anytime during the week in the Chapel. Jesus is there 24/7.
